GETTYSBURG HI GRADUATES 115; DR. BAUGHMAN GIVES ADDRESS

One hundred and fifteen Gettysburg High School seniors received their diplomas at the annual baccalaureate commencement exercises and were advised by their graduation speaker, Dr. Harry F. Baughman, Lutheran Theological Seminary president, to "take God and religion with you into your future."

Addressing the class on "Victory with a Margin," Dr. Baughman said after his initial words of greeting and congratulation: "Victory in any contest may be won by a very narrow margin or triumph may come by a decisive margin, clear cut and undebatable. Life is like that."

"You can live a life that is victorious by a clear, wide unmistakable margin or you can live close to the hazy line of failure so that you will be tempted often to ask what is the passing grade. There is peril in that course of just squeaking through. Many vessels in life come to grief by steering a course too close to the shallows, by trying to get by with too close a margin."

Offers A Motto

He offered the seniors "not as a text but as a motto or ideal," this passage from the sixth chapter of Ephesians: "Take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

He continued: "The call to you young people in this important day is the call to live broad, clean lives with a clear, open margin of freedom for you on the side of victory. You must decide whether you shall do only what you must or what you can. Be on hand not only when you are called but far, far in advance of your duty."

"Put on the whole armor of God. Place your reliance upon and cooperate with God. Do not rely merely upon your own knowledge, intelligence and ability."

REV. MEREDITH IS SPEAKER AT BENDERSVILLE

"We can best honor those who gave their lives for our nation by perpetuating their good," Rev. Victor K. Meredith Jr., pastor of the Gettysburg Methodist Church, said Saturday afternoon at the annual Memorial Exercises at Bendersville.

"In seeking to strive for that for which they gave their final effort, we must not allow our hope to die even though our progress may be slow," he added. "Their sacrifice must strengthen our hope, their sacrifice must be a light leading us on when we would abandon the struggle."

"Even though Memorial Day is associated with war, we shall not exult war. We shall seek ever for peace. And we should search in our hearts and our past to see to what extent we ourselves might be guilty for the causes of war, and by seeking, strive to eliminate from the future any possibility of such guilt."

"Only in so far as we seek to truly attain the highest ideals for which our dead have died will we truly honor them."

The Ira E. Lady Post 262 of the American Legion conducted the ritualistic services in connection with the Memorial program. The invocation was given by the Rev. William S. Hollingsworth, pastor of the Bendersville Methodist church. Lincoln's Address, was given by Miss Marie Coble, Aspers. Donald Wenk, Aspers, served as master of ceremonies.

REMEMBERING NOT ENOUGH SAYS SPEAKER

"Remembrance without action on our part is of little value as a memorial to those who gave their last full measure of devotion," Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, associate professor of Bible at Gettysburg College, said Sunday afternoon at the annual Biglerville Memorial exercises held in the cemetery there.

The Upper Adams Joint High School Band led the parade of school children and others from the borough to the cemetery and then took part in the services there.

As the band played a hymn, the school children placed flowers on the graves as part of the annual ritual.

Hold Legion Ritual

Basing his talk on the Biblical sentence, "Help, O Lord, your servant Israel in remembrance of Thy mercy," Dr. Dunkelberger noted: "Remembrance challenges us; remembrance deepens our sense of appreciation; remembrance must stimulate us to activity."

Members of the firing squad of the Ira Lady Post of the American Legion under command of Evers Rinehart presented the Legion ritual for departed veterans. Members of the firing squad included Paul J. Osborn, John Stover, Nelson Kane, Clair Settle, Earl Ecker, Kenneth Guise, Ralph Sandoe Jr., Howard McClellan, James Helsley, James Cover and Glenn Heller.

Rev. Dr. H. W. Sternat served as master of ceremonies and gave the invocation and benediction. Cecilia Yoder gave Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and Stephen Gettler read "In Flanders Field."

RAIN SHORTENS RITES SATURDAY

Rain cut short the annual memorial services at the Great Conewago Presbyterian Cemetery at Hunters-town Saturday evening.

The parade moved on schedule from the Hunters-town Methodist Church led by the Junior High School Band under the direction of Robert G. Zeigler. School children strewed flowers on the graves that include soldiers of the American Revolution while the band played "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Then as the Gettysburg Sons of Veterans stood at the flagpole to read the Memorial Day ritual and the firing squad under command of David Tawney fired three volleys over the graves and Bugler Luther Smith sounded "Taps."

The rain continued and the memorial program was cancelled. The address was to have been delivered by the Rev. Herman Beatty, supply pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and Fred G. Pfeiffer was to have delivered Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The Rev. Amos Meyers, Hunters-town Methodist pastor, had been asked to give the invocation and benediction.

There was an abbreviated concert by Junior Band and supper were served in the Sunday School chapel.

ROBBED HOME, SPENT LOOT WITH VICTIM

A 17-year-old youth, who says he is a parolee from Paterson, N. J., Saturday evening rifled the home of a York Springs R. 1 motor court owner and then spent part of the loot next door in the victim's restaurant, was apprehended by state police Sunday morning in a Gettysburg dining establishment.

Acting on the information supplied by Ernest Wishard, owner of Wishard's Motor Court between Heidelsburg and York Springs, two members of the local state police sub-station shortly before noon, Sunday, took the youth into custody on charges of burglary and larceny.

He was spotted in a Gettysburg restaurant and later admitted the thefts before being committed to the Adams County juvenile commitment cells in the county jail. He will appear for hearing later.

Most Of Loot Recovered

Wishard told state police that the boy was hitch-hiking to Chicago on Rte. 15 Saturday evening about 8:45 o'clock when he approached the Wishard home. Finding the house unoccupied he ransacked it and, Wishard claimed, took a $150 gold ring, $110 in traveler's checks, $61 in cash, a woman's flashlight, and a wrist watch.

He then went to the Wishard restaurant and purchased a meal with some of the stolen money.

After his arrest, the boy told state police he threw away the traveler's checks near the cabins. When apprehended, the remainder of the stolen items were found on his person.

State police asked that the finders of the checks return them. Records of the checks are available and they will not be redeemable, police say.

MRS. C. C. LITTLE STRUCK BY AUTO

Mrs. Bessie M. Little, 68, Littlestown R. 2, suffered a puncture wound of the scalp and contusions of the back when she was struck by a car while crossing the Gettysburg-Littlestown Rd. Saturday night at 9:25 o'clock.

Sell was driving north, toward Gettysburg, at the time of the crash. Damage to the Sell car was estimated at $25 and was confined to the right door of the vehicle.

TRADITIONAL SERVICE HELD SUNDAY BY SUV

"We memorialize not wars, with their destruction and misery, but the ideals and high personal qualities of those who fought and who reached the heights of courage and self sacrifice," Rev. Herman Stuempfle Jr., pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, declared at the annual Grand Army of the Republic Memorial service held at the GAR post rooms, E. Middle St., Sunday afternoon by the Sons of Union Veterans.

The talk by the Rev. Mr. Stuempfle was given as the "oration" listed in the Grand Army ritual which is re-presented each year on the Sunday before Memorial Day by SUV to keep alive the service begun more than 80 years ago and carried on by the Grand Army until it passed out of existence.

David Tawney, T. J. Winebrenner and Paul Snyder of the Sons of Veterans respectively portrayed the commander, chaplain and adjutant of the GAR for the ritual. The ritual calls for the "Memorial Oration" to be given by a local pastor. The roll of drums, given traditionally when the adjutant calls the names of the GAR dead, was given by Lawrence M. Sheads and William T. Timmins Jr. of the Albert Lentz post of the American Legion.

"We should come into Memorial Day with humility and dedication," Pastor Stuempfle said. "Humility in that the human race, which has found out so many things, has been unable to find a means of making war a thing of the past. We should wage peace, not war. As should go into the waging of peace as had gone into the waging of war."

"Lincoln expressed here the sense of dedication that we should have. We should express in today's society the ideals for which they died—liberty and equality of races. Even in our own country and community there are today unfinished tasks still before us. But there are growing trends, such as the recent supreme court decision on abolishing segregation in schools, that we are making progress."

SAYS POSITIVE CITIZENSHIP IS NEEDED MOST

"So long as democracy continues to operate on religious principles, just so long will democracy live," Dr. Herbert Bryan of New Oxford said in the memorial address at the annual Abbotstown community service held Saturday in the old Reformed Cemetery there following a parade.

"History reveals that nations that have outlawed religious principles were sounding their own death knell," he continued.

While showers sent some of the crowd scurrying for cover, Dr. Bryan spoke on the theme "Accent the Positive." He said in part: "On Memorial Day we honor the men who gave their lives to protect democracy but democracy is not yet safe. The greatest responsibility of American citizens today is to do all they can to preserve, protect, maintain and perhaps to better the American way of life. To do so they must understand the meaning, principles and workings of democracy. They must recognize its enemies and they must translate into civic behavior the basic teachings of our religion."

"Democracy represents a living faith. It stresses the belief that every individual counts, that re-

Tributes To War Dead

Flowers and wreaths, symbols of devotion and love, from family and friends, cover the more than 600 graves of World War II and Korean War dead in their sections of the National Cemetery. From many states families have visited the cemetery last week and today to bring floral tributes for the sons, husbands, brothers and grandchildren who lie here, after giving their lives in the last two wars. Many, too far away to make the trip themselves, sent the flowers and wreaths here. This picture of a section of the cemetery was taken at 7 o'clock this morning.

NEED PATIENCE AND FORTITUDE SAYS SPEAKER

Speaking at a Memorial Day service at Bendersville some ten months after the conclusion of the Korean War, Rev. Nelson Frank, Chambersburg, asked: "How long will we continue to think it a small matter—this liberty of ours—for which others in many wars have sacrificed their lives?" His address was marked by frequent allusions to the Communist menace.

The speaker, former pastor of the Bendersville Methodist Church, told an audience of more than 250 persons, "Heartbreak Ridge, where thousands died, extends around the world and runs through Adams County and Bendersville because some of your sons gave their lives for what that hill stands for."

Drawing from Abraham Lincoln, Rev. Mr. Frank declared that "mankind faces what appears to be the ultimate test of civilization's survival on this earth. These stones are a challenge to action that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion."

"Patience and Fortitude"

He stated, "We must be firm in the right as we see the right even though it will take all of patience and fortitude to do so . . . and if we allow communism to work harder and give more than does Christianity, then we'll hardly deserve to win the greatest fight in the epochs of the earth."

He emphasized, "These stones symbolize that our liberty was bought at a very great cost and they serve to bring back hallowed memories of our loved ones."

Rev. Mr. Frank was introduced by Atty. Leighton C. Taylor, master of ceremonies. In his introductory Mr. Taylor said: "Man's mind creates power but only man's character can control it." He called for less emphasis on re-armament and

PRAISES BAN ON SEGREGATION BY HIGH COURT

Dr. Roger K. Williams, dean of Morgan State College, Sunday afternoon praised the recent Supreme Court rule banning segregated schools as "symbolizing the forthcoming benefits and goodness of democracy" at the annual colored Memorial Day services in Lincoln Cemetery.

Speaking before an audience gathered to pay homage to their war-time dead, Dr. Williams, head of the Department of Psychology at the Baltimore school, stressed, "The important things about people are the similarities and not the differences."

"Gettysburg," he said, "shines as a memory because of men who fought here for what they believed." His subject was "The Gettysburg of Democracy." "It is with a feeling of depression and humility that I look over the Battlefield at Gettysburg—for words are inadequate at a Decoration Day ceremony. Gettysburg stands as a spirit highlighting mankind's struggle for freedom and peace in a democratic world. The sacrifice of our dead in all wars can never be adequately paid." He concluded his brief address with a recitation of "In Flanders Fields."

F. H. Linard, 59, Iron Springs, Dies

Foster Henry Linard, 59, Iron Springs, died Sunday evening at 10:30 o'clock in the Warner Hospital where he had been admitted as a patient last week.

He was a native of Steelton but had lived in this county most of his life. He was a son of the late Henry and Carolina (Brown) Linard. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church at Fairfield. He had worked for 16 years for the Gettysburg Ice and Storage Company.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

On the green lawn of the National Cemetery, where General Dahlquist will speak beside the rows of headstones, are 4600 small American flags, their red, white and blue clear and sharp in the bright sunlight. The flags were placed last week by National Park officials to honor the dead of the Civil War, Spanish American War, World War I and II, and the Korean War interred in the cemetery dedicated 90 years ago by President Abraham Lincoln.

RESPONSIBILITY OF AMERICA IS FAIRFIELD TOPIC

America, having achieved the position of "most powerful nation in the world, militarily, industrially and morally" now has the responsibility to apply that power to keep the peace of the world, Attorney William S. Culbertson, Chairman, former U. S. ambassador to Romania and Chile, said Sunday afternoon at the annual memorial services in Fairfield Union Cemetery.

Without Russia, he added, land armies could not have invaded Europe in World War II. But because of Russia "we are facing a threat of today is as great as that of 1940. Overshadowing the world is the conflict between a materialistic, evil philosophy and the concepts of freedom and law and order and Christian faith."

Sometimes "there is a need to use force to overcome evil," he said, the American government's policy has been to hold back Russia while seeking an understanding on peace with the other nations of the world. He concluded that "it is our duty to dedicate ourselves to seek a spiritual approach to world problems."

The 67th annual Fairfield services opened with a selection by the Fairfield High School band, after which the Rev. Roger Burnier, pastor of Mt. Hope, Mt. Carmel and Mt. Calvary U. B. churches gave the invocation. There were vocal selections by a quartet including Merle Kittinger, William Schultz, Roy Musselman and Allen Weikert.

Hubert Solomon read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Miss Ethel Grace Allison gave a reading "In Memoriam" and Mrs. J. Warren Martin read "Ode To Our Soldier Dead." The benediction by the Rev. Verle C. Schumacher, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield, concluded the program which included a number of selections by the band, quartet and an instrumental trio from the band.

REV. KORTE IS ARENDSVILLE'S MAY 30 SPEAKER

Rev. Edwerth E. Korte, Gettysburg College chaplain, declared that "it was religious conviction that has made our country great," and added that "only if we continue to follow our religious concepts can we as a nation remain great," in giving the address at the annual memorial services held Sunday afternoon at Arendtsville.

Speaking at exercises in the Arendtsville Cemetery, Rev. Korte challenged those present to "be true to our history as Americans. Each of us doing his part in his own field, in his own small way, is what makes a strong America."

Observing that "America's greatest glory is in the future, not the past," he said, "What does it say on our coin. The words written there are plain for all to see. It does say 'trust in fear, trust in understanding, or even trust in armaments. The wording on our coins should be our guide in all—In God We Trust.'"

Plus S. Orner served as master of ceremonies for the cemetery exercises. The prayer was given by Rev. Nevin Frantz. Nancy Sheffer recited "In Flanders Field" and Ted Orner gave Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

The Biglerville High School band provided the music for the program and the Ira Lady Post of the American Legion presented the Legion ritual program as part of the service. The cemetery exercises followed a parade of the band, school children, Legionnaires and others to the cemeteries. Flowers were strewn on the graves by the children.

MIXED REACTION THIS WEEK TO THREE BIG BILLS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three major proposals in President Eisenhower's legislative program headed for crucial tests on Capitol Hill this week—with mixed prospects.

Both the House and Senate took today off because of the Memorial Day holiday.

The House will take up tomorrow an administration-backed bill to add new millions of persons to the social security program, increase the benefit payments and boost the annual contribution by employees and employers. Passage seemed assured.

Also Likely To Pass

The Senate has scheduled debate starting Thursday on a House-approved housing bill. While passage in some form is virtually certain. New opposition from some southern Democrats cast considerable doubt on the fate of the President's request for authority for a four-year public housing program.

The Senate Finance Committee hopes to complete by Friday its version of the administration tax revision bill, already passed by the House. GOP leaders have voiced confidence that the committee will approve it about in the form the administration asked. But Democratic senators plugging for a new income tax cut have said they will carry their fight to the Senate floor if they lost in the committee's closed-door sessions.

The tax revision, a bulky 875-page bill, would make no changes in major levies but would cut taxes about $1,400,000,000 in its first year of operation through various benefits for individuals and businesses.

Social Security To Pass

The social security bill, Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) said Saturday night, will win "overwhelming" House approval. The Senate has not acted.

Opponents centered their fire on a provision to increase from $2,600 to $4,200 the maximum annual wage on which both workers and employers contribute, currently at a rate of 2 per cent.

NLRB RULES AGAINST REDS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) last night ruled that the International Fur and Leather Workers Union may no longer use its services because Ben Gold remains the union's president.

Gold, an avowed Communist for 30 years, was convicted April 30 of swearing falsely in an affidavit filed with the NLRB in 1950 that he was not a Communist nor a believer in communism. He said he had quit the party the day before.

On May 17, the independent union's convention unanimously re-elected Gold to a two-year term as president in the face of notice from the NLRB to oust him or demonstrate why it should be considered still eligible to use NLRB services.

The Taft-Hartley Act requires that officers of unions using NLRB machinery file non-Communist affidavits. Gold has filed a new affidavit and is free on bond while appealing his conviction and one year sentence.

The NLRB action means that if a new election were held to determine the bargaining agent among fur and leather workers, Gold's union would be barred from a place on the ballot.

SEN. MONRONEY SAYS M'CARTHY IS "USURPER"

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.), an author of the Congressional Reorganization Act, today disputed Sen. McCarthy's claim that law supports the Wisconsin senator in his constitutional clash with the Eisenhower administration over getting secret information from government workers.

Furthermore, Monroney declared in an interview, McCarthy has been "usurping" the prerogatives of other congressional committees by invading their fields.

There was no immediate response from McCarthy, vacationing over the Memorial Day holiday. But the Wisconsin Republican contended at televised hearings last week that the congressional act makes him—chairman of the Senate Government Operations Committee and its Permanent Investigations Subcommittee—an "authorized person" to be fed secret data from federal employees.

Can't Violate Executive Orders

That was a central point in his argument against the administration's expressed view—obviously aimed at McCarthy—that executive branch officials should not disclose classified material to "unauthorized" individuals whoever they are.

The Congressional Reorganization Act, passed in 1946 and known as the "La Follette-McCloy Act," was designed among other things to revamp the committee and set up and lay out lines of jurisdiction. Monroney was a member of the House at the time.

Monroney said today: "There is nothing in the act which permits the senator from Wisconsin to violate executive orders or the law against receiving or divulging classified information."

Resume On Tuesday

"It was never intended to give the chairman of the subcommittee a hunting license for an over-all investigation of government activities. His committee's investigative powers are pegged primarily to expenditures and there was no thought that they would supersede authority of the other standing committees."

The Senate Investigations subcommittee will resume its televised probe tomorrow of Army accusations that McCarthy and Roy M. Cohn exerted improper pressure in seeking favored Army treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine.

McCarthy and Cohn accused Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams of attempting to use Schine a former subcommittee consultant, as a "hostage" in futile efforts to sidetrack an investigation of alleged Communists in the Army.

PEACE MARKS MEMORIAL DAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the first time in four years Americans honored their war dead in Memorial Day observances today with their service men everywhere at peace.

But even though no gunfire was exchanged in Korea, a military tragedy was marked at Quonset Point, R. I.

There the Navy planned special Memorial Day services for the 100 seamen who died from an explosion Wednesday aboard the aircraft carrier Bennington.

At Arlington National Cemetery, President Eisenhower was to lay a wreath at the tomb of the unknown Soldier, then attend Memorial Day services in the cemetery amphitheater.

The nation's lawmakers took the day off, too. The Senate and House were in recess, and the Army-Sen. McCarthy televised dispute will not resume until tomorrow.

The weather, in most states was fair. But a tornado last night killed six children near Norfolk, Neb.

There were thundershowers in the northern Midwest, and there was a possibility of rain spoiling the traditional Indianapolis 500-mile speedway auto race.

On the highways, 248 auto travelers had lost their lives between 6 p.m. Friday and early today.

Mr. Sell was held immediately following the service of ordination on the lawn at the home of his parents. Approximately 125 relatives and friends were in attendance.

Out Of The Past

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The Rev. David A. Wilson, formerly of this county, Principal of the Alexander High School at Monrovia, in Liberia, arrived at Salem, Mass., on Friday. Mrs. Wilson returned last summer from Liberia to recruit her health, and has been with her relatives in this place ever since. Her health has much improved.

Mr. Wilson's health was much impaired but he is convalescent.

Died: On Tuesday, very suddenly, at the residence of his son (Hon. Joel B. Danner), in this place, Mr. Zachariah Danner, aged 82 years.

On Saturday, after a long illness, Mr. Jacob Stouffer, Steward of the Theological Seminary.

The Eclipse of the Sun took place on Friday afternoon, agreeably to programme. The heavens were without a cloud and the atmosphere transparent—affording a most favorable opportunity for astronomical observations.

The church bells at Hartford, Conn., were tolled for one hour, at sunset on Friday on account of the passage of the Nebraska bill.

The Nebraska Bill Passed: On Thursday the debate on the Nebraska bill was continued in the Senate, and was of a warm and exciting character. It continued until one o'clock on Friday morning, when the bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, 35 to 13—and afterwards finally passed, as it came from the House! A salute of 100 guns was fired on Capitol Hill, immediately on the passage of the bill! Thus has this iniquitous measure been carried through by a Northern President, throwing all his official power into the scale, and by threats and promises, inducing men to act against their better judgments! What will the end be?

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Decoration Day: The weather throughout Friday morning looked threatening, but with the exception of the great heat, the day proved all that could be desired. The attendance was unusually large, the crowd being variously estimated at from 4,000 to 8,000. . . . The excursion from Harrisburg brought the Governor's party, General McCandless, and a large representation of both branches of the legislature, ciceroneed by Senator Heretere and Representative White. The Governor's immediate party, consisting of Gov. and Mrs. Hoyt, Miss Hoyt, Miss Woodward, Senator Lawrence, and Capt. and Mrs. Walker were entertained by Col. E. G. Fahnestock. General McCandless was driven to the Eagle Hotel. The Governor's party, General McCandless and a large number of Senators and representatives, shortly after their arrival, took carriages and were driven over the battle-field. . . .

Corporal Skelly Post No. 9, G.A.R. met at the Post room at 8 o'clock in the morning and under the command of Commander Eicholtz, visited the Associate Reformed, Catholic and Reformed burying grounds, and with appropriate ceremonies decorated the graves of the soldiers who are buried in these grounds. . . .

At one o'clock Major Henry S. Benner, Chief Marshal, commenced the formation of the line of procession, which marched from the square to the Cemetery in the following order: Governor's party in carriages; Senators and Representatives; band; teachers and pupils of the public schools; burgess and members of the town council; civic organizations an detatchments; Corporal Skelly Post No. 9, G.A.R. and ex-soldiers. . . .

After the impressive ceremonies of the Grand Army were conducted by comrades Eicholtz, Wilson, Bell, Skelly and Wible, the flowers were strewn by the children. Corporal Skelly Post then proceeded to Ever Green Cemetery where the graves of all soldiers were honored in a similar manner. . . .

The services at the handsome, new rostrum were opened with an eloquent prayer by Rev. Dr. Valentine; singing of a "Dirge" by the Athenaeum chorus, assisted by Messrs. James Bigham, George C.

Today's Talk

CONSTRUCTION
NOT DESTRUCTION
Recently at a weekly Luncheon Club in New York City, of which I am a member, I listened to one of the finest programs ever conducted there. It was fathered over by Dr. Howard Rusk, of the New York Times, who, with Gen. James A. Van Fleet, head of the American Korean Foundation, plans to raise $10,000,000 for the building up of Korea, so brutally torn by the tragedy of war.

Dr. Rusk gave a most interesting talk and then called upon a chorus of Korean children to sing, rendering many a familiar song, but in the language of their native country. No one who listened, or noted the bright eyes and intelligence of these children, can ever forget the scene. It was an audience of noted men but the songs of those small children went right to the heart of everyone. I am happy that there has been so much publicity given these children for no one can fail to be touched by their great need for a rebuilt homeland.

I am told that this Foundation plans at least three "Help Korea Trains," kindly provided by American railroads, which will tour the country from East to West, picking up carloads of materials and equipment to be shipped to Korea. It is estimated that there will be six-hundred carloads, collected through the country and sent from San Francisco.

This fine gesture is characteristic of America and other free nations. Think of the constructive work that General MacArthur did in Japan after that nation had so brutally attacked the United States. Think of the heroic deeds of the some 125,000 wounded and dead in Korea of American boys. The United States wish above everything else that there shall be peace in the world. Now in Korea they want to bind up the wounds in that unhappy nation. Also in Germany. Do the dictator nations work this way?

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "That Surviving Spirit."

No white-capped nurse to me to say:
"Good morning. How are you today?"
And I to answer her: "Hello!
When I'm awake I'll let you know."

No bath at seven, let come what may
At seven-fifteen no breakfast tray.
At eight (and never once forgot)
No pill, no penicillin shot.

No glass of juice—the peach or prune
No doctor's conference at noon,
And no one solemnly to say:
"What else from him to take away?"

Oh, glad am I that I no more
Must dine alone at half-past four;
And, freed from the routine of pain,
Can boast that I am well again.

Only Four Veterans of Civil War Survive; One Is In North

By Associated Press
The boys wearing the Blue and the Gray—marching to Shiloh, to Bull Run, to Gettysburg—were four million strong.
Now they are four.

Only Albert Henry Woolson, of Duluth, Minn., is alive of the 2-675,000-man army serving under the Union Flag in the Civil War.

On Southern farms live three Confederate brothers-in-arms: William Allen Lundy, near Laurel Hill, Fla.; Walter W. Williams, near Franklin, Tex., and John B. Salling, near Slant, Va.

These four were young men on the first Memorial Day 86 years ago. But they are a hardy breed.
Don't Count 'Em Out
"Don't count me out yet," said Woolson when he turned 107 last February. "I'm going to be around for at least three or four more of these nice birthdays. I'm just beginning to feel like I'm not a boy any more."

Then the drummer boy of 1864 rapped out a snappy roll on a snare drum, recited parts of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and kissed all the women callers.

At a spy 111, Williams—Col. Will, as neighbors call him—figures he'll make it to 119 like his grandfather, Stephen Williams of South Carolina.
Like To Talk Of War
John Salling, who celebrated his 108th birthday May 15, has a full head of shiny black hair, and the youngster of the group, 106-year-old Uncle Bill Lundy, says: "I can hear the chatter of a cat squirrel as good now as I could 50 years ago."

Though none of the four apparently saw battle service, they all like to talk about the war, except Williams. He joined Gen. John B. Hood's cavalry when he was 22—Compani C, 5th Division, Hood's brigade, stationed in Corinth, Miss.—as forage master. "That meant I got the grub for the others. We'd run in a bunch of cattle for them to kill and eat."

The closest Yankee Woolson ever got to fighting was during rumors of a possible attack by the Confederate forces under the same Gen. Hood. If the attack had materialized, it's possible Woolson and Williams might have exchanged shots.

Bitterness Is Gone
The bitterness of soldier for foe has disappeared. A feeling of comradeship has grown up among the remaining members of this select fraternity of old men. They keep close tab on each other.

Woolson was deeply moved at the death of Union veteran, 111-year-old James A. Hard, last year in Rochester, N. Y. He immediately sat down and in a clear, but wavering, hand penned a letter of condolence to the immediate family and descendants of James Hard, civil war comrad. . . .

Although his steps have grown noticeably feeble during the past year and his beard is whiter, Uncle Bill Lundy is still in good health, attributable, he says, to a life of hard work, living right and looking after his own business. He was born near Troy, Ala., Jan. 18, 1848.

248 KILLED IN ROAD MISHAPS SINCE FRIDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Memorial Day weekend traffic fatalities were running well ahead of this year's daily average of 88, but whether new records would be established depended upon the proportions of the going-home slaughter.

The last day of a holiday weekend usually is the deadliest. The National Safety Council, which has predicted that 340 persons will lose their lives in traffic accidents during this first holiday outing period of the season, estimates 30 million automobiles are on the roads.

The traffic toll since 6 p.m. Friday, at an early hour today, amounted to 248 lives. Forty-nine more were drowned and 41 additional lost their lives in a variety of accidents for a total of 338.

There seemed little doubt that the holiday weekend toll would surpass figures compiled by the Associated Press for comparative purposes. Over a 78-hour period, 6 p.m. May 14 to midnight May 17, fatalities were: traffic 243, drownings 50, miscellaneous 66, total 359.

The record for deaths in highway accidents during a Memorial Day weekend was set during the three-day period of 1952. It was 363. The record for all fatalities, set during the four-day Memorial Day weekend of 1950, is 571.

Leftover corned beef makes wonderful hash, of course; but don't forget that it is delicious for sandwich fillings. Chop it fine and mix it with enough Russian dressing to moisten; for something crisp—and for a change—add finely shredded green cabbage to the sandwich instead of lettuce.

YOUTH ACCUSED OF MURDER; DAD PREACHES ON DELINQUENCY

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A Baptist minister, pausing often in his sermon as emotion overcame him, preached yesterday on adult delinquency as his teen-age son, 10 days ago accused of murder, sat on the front row.

After the Rev. Luther B. Osborne, as is customary at the end of his sermons, called for professions of faith, many in his emotion-charged congregation began crying.

The son, Luther, 17, and Jerry Willis, 18, are accused of beating Julian Vega, 68, cafe-bar owner, to death with a pool cue the night of May 21.

Blames Parental Delinquency
The pastor of the Linares Avenue Baptist Church listed these as his views of the cause of juvenile delinquency: a personal spiritual being called the devil; parents' failure to cooperate with other parents; the making of association of teen-agers too convenient.

"I think more in terms of parental delinquency than of juvenile delinquency," he said.

Mountain Climbers Bring Injured Soldier Down Mt. McKinley Today

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—A rescue team of eight expert mountain climbers cat-stepped its way down the ice-covered sides of Mt. McKinley today, carrying an injured Brooklyn soldier nearer to safety.

Strapped tightly to a sled was Pfc. George Argus, whose hip was broken May 16 in a 1,000-foot fall that killed a companion, George Thayer, 27, of Reedsboro, Vt.

Argus, left in an improvised tent May 23 by two other climbers who survived the fall, was found yesterday morning by Dr. John McCall of the University of Alaska and Frank Milan of the Air Force aero-medical laboratory at Ladd Air Force Base.

The two who survived the fall, uninjured, Morton Wood and Les Viereck, left Argus wrapped warmly in the small tent at the 11,000-foot level on McKinley while the made their way down the mountain to report the tragedy.

McCall and Milan, rapidly out-distancing the other five members of the ground party yesterday and Saturday after Argus' tent was spotted from the air, succeeded in a desperate bid to beat death to Argus' side and reached the crippled climber at 10:10 a.m. (4:10 p.m. EST) yesterday.

Rescue At Gunsight Pass
"He's alive and well," they radioed.

To get Argus down to a point where he can be picked up by helicopter—the whirlybirds can't operate at high altitudes—the rescue party must take him on an airdropped sled down the face of the crevassed-laced glacier.

Below the glacier, at Gunsight Pass, Argus will be picked up by an Air Force helicopter for a flight to rescue headquarters and Minchumina. Gunsight Pass is at the 6,000-foot level.

Wood estimated the rescue party would not reach Gunsight Pass before Tuesday.

PIRATES HELP PHILLIES INTO SECOND PLACE AS BRAVES FAIL

By JACK HAND

The Pittsburgh "pick-me-up" is a sure fire remedy for woody National League contenders. One trip to Fred Haney's clinic and the ailing patient is young at heart.

Philadelphia took the cure yesterday and shot into a second place tie with New York and Brooklyn, only 1½ games behind the leading Milwaukee Braves. Now it's the Giants' turn to visit the health spa.

The Phils and Dodgers have found the Pirates oh so helpful in the first quarter of the season. If the Phils hadn't thumped the Pirates in six of eight and the Dodgers hadn't beaten them in eight of 10, both clubs would be under the .500 mark.

Cards Bump Braves

The league closed in on Milwaukee Sunday when St. Louis knocked off the Braves, 3-2, for Harvey Haddix's seventh victory. Brooklyn bested New York, 5-3, the Phils dumped the Pirates twice, 8-0 and 10-7 and Chicago split two with Cincinnati. The Cubs took the opener, 7-5, the first start for outfielder Hal Jeffcoat but Cincinnati rallied to take the second, 6-5, called by darkness after eight innings.

It's only five games from first to seventh (Milwaukee to Chicago) but the Pirates already are 13 games behind.

Indians Open Up Lead

Cleveland finally shook off Chicago's challenge to open up a one-game lead in the American, defeating Detroit 3-1 while Chicago's eight-game winning streak was broken by Baltimore, 5-2. The victory snapped the Orioles out of a 10-game losing slump.

Boston added to Casey Stengel's worries, beating the New York Yankees, 3-1 on Willard Nixon's four-hitter. Washington shut out Philadelphia, 6-0, behind Maury McDermott but the A's came back to get an even break, winning the second, 6-5, on Ed McGhee's pinch double in the last of the ninth.

Penn State DROPS BOXING

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Penn State has dropped collegiate boxing after 36 years of active participation in the sport.

The sport was eliminated because of scheduling difficulties and what the school described as public apathy.

The decision to drop boxing was made by the university's 13-member athletic advisory board after a year's study.

"The decision reflects public apathy and the complete decline of the sport in colleges across the country," a school spokesman said. "There no longer was any enthusiasm for the sport among students, faculty and alumni, the study showed."

Less than 20 major schools still carry on intercollegiate boxing and long trips were necessary for dual boxing meets, the study showed.

The school started its first boxing team in 1919 and its meeting with the University of Pennsylvania that year is considered the nation's first intercollegiate boxing meet.

E. B. McCoy, state athletic director, said:

"No institution ever takes a step like this without considerable forethought. This would be particularly true of this university because of our long and distinguished record as a supporter of intercollegiate boxing."

He said more people now look upon intercollegiate boxing as a "sport of questionable value."

State finished third in the NCAA national tournament, held on the campus here last month. The Nittany Lions won their only national championship in 1932.

TO MEET AT 1:30 P.M.

Paul Anzenberger, commander of the Albert J. Lentz American Legion Post, has requested all Legionnaires to assemble at the Legion Home this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the parade. Wearing of the uniform is not required and cars will be available to transport veterans who cannot march.

BAND AT HARNEY

The Gettysburg High School Senior Band went to Harney Friday evening to take part in the annual memorial parade and services in two cemeteries there.

Wins State Event

Stanton Musser, honorary captain of the Gettysburg High School track team, clinched a brilliant school athletic career Saturday when he won the 180-yard low hurdles in the state PIAA meet at State College.

Despite a track made heavy by showers, Musser turned in his fastest time of the season, being clocked at 20 seconds flat. He was the only entry from District 3 to win a Class A event.

Bob Mauss, Biglerville's javelin tossing star, finished second in that Class B event. The toss was won by Richard DeMagall, Scottsdale, with a heave of 179-2½.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

National League Outdraws American

NEW YORK, May 31 (AP)—Thanks mainly to Milwaukee and New York, the National League has outdrawn the American League by more than 81,000 for the first two days of the Memorial Day holiday.

A crowd of 40,001 watched the St. Louis-Milwaukee game Saturday and another throng of 37,592 showed up yesterday. The New York-Brooklyn game at the Polo Grounds attracted 47,672 to bring the senior circuit's two-day total to 196,798.

The American League drew 115,621 headed by the 27,407 at the New York-Boston game yesterday.

Sports Mirror

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The most refreshing statement of the current baseball season is that attributed to Umpire Larry Goetz of the National League after a mix-up between his fellow arbiters on a decision in a game between Chicago and St. Louis. The forthright Goetz said it was "lousy umpiring," and expressed his regrets.

The average fan, we suggest, would be much more inclined to respect and even like umpires if the hirings in blue were permitted more often to relieve their feelings publicly and admit that they are fallible. We predict, further, that the first of them who tells the press after a game that "I blew a couple today, boys," will become famous. Goetz is just the one who might do it, too.

Any of the contending clubs which hope to sneak some "penalty insurance" out of the opposite league—a maneuver made somewhat notorious by the Yankees in recent seasons—will have to act soon. The new "Greenberg Rule," named for its sponsor, General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians, will put a crimp in such activities after it goes into effect June 15.

From that point on it will not be enough to get a player waived out of his own league in order to sell him to a contending club in the other league, as was done, for example, when the St. Louis Cardinals bought Vic Raschi from the Yankees this spring. Under the new law such a "castoff" from the American League would have to be turned down by all the clubs in the National in ascending order, beginning with the last place Pittsburgh Pirates, before he could be dealt to the Cards.

And, speaking of the Yankees, there is additional evidence that their rivals in the American League, while not necessarily engaging in a "stop the Yanks" campaign, are not consciously doing anything to help the five-time world champions, either.

The recent deal in which the Boston Red Sox sent third baseman George Kell to the sizzling Chicago White Sox actually was agreed upon some days before the official announcement was made, but the Bostonians thought it would look better if they held on to the star through an imminent three-game series against the Yanks.

Kell's bat played a prominent part in winning two of the three.

Having known Stan Musial a long time, other National League managers have shown no disposition to copy Birdie Tebbetts' experiment of yanking his shortstop and using four outfielders in an effort to cut a few points off the head Redbird's batting average.

Their is a defeatist attitude. They say that if Musial cracks one of his typical line drives it's going to be a hit unless it goes straight at a fielder, and that if he busts one out of the lot it's gone. Birdie, the new Cincinnati pilot, refuses to be discouraged. He says he'll be satisfied if he only succeeds in worrying the great hitter a little bit.

Favors Senator As Democratic Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Strong support for Sen. Earle C. Clements of Kentucky as the next chairman of the Democratic National Committee was reported yesterday to be building up among Senate Democrats.

Stephen A. Mitchell, the present chairman, has said he plans to resign after next November's elections for control of Congress. Possible successors include Paul M. Butler, Indiana national committeeman, and Michael V. Di Salle of Ohio, former vice administrator.

Clements, 57 and a former governor and House member, has been in the Senate since November, 1950, and is chairman of the Senate Campaign Committee. He could retain his Senate seat if elected party chairman.

JOHNNY PALMER WINS WESTERN

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Johnny Palmer added $5,000 to his bank account, saw himself climb to fifth place among the nation's money winners and looked toward the Western Open at Cincinnati today as they toasted him at Colonial Country Club for a great finish that gave him first place in the Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

The steady veteran from Carlisle, N. C., closed with his second straight 1-under-par 69 yesterday for a 72-hole total of 280 and a 2-stroke victory.

Palmer's $5,000 brought his total for the year to $8,186.66 and put him within a little more than $3,000 of first place held by Bob Toski, Livingston, N. J., with $11,188.74.

For the first time, Ben Hogan failed to finish in the Colonial. Hogan, champion four times in the eight years, had to withdraw Saturday because of a virus attack. He still is confined to his bed.

Taneytown holds sole possession of first place in the South Penn Baseball League as the result of a squeezing out a 6-5 victory at Greenmount Sunday afternoon while Brushtown lost 12-0 to Mummasburg.

A four-run uprising in the sixth inning gave Taneytown the decision after trailing 4-2. Greenmount collected 11 hits, three by S. Staley, while the visitors secured but nine.

Clyde Little, after an absence of two years, returned to the mound to hurl Hunterstown to a 3-2 victory in an 11-inning contest with Bonneauville at Littlestown. He gave up but five hits and fanned six. Clyde Cleveland led the Hunterstown attack with three safeties.

Wenksville and Harney staged a free-scoring affair at Harney with Wenksville triumphing 10-7. The upper countians trailed 7-6 going into the seventh inning but came up with four runs in that frame to clinch the verdict.

Mummasburg pulled into a tie for second place with Brushtown by gaining a 12-0 victory at Brushtown. Singly hurled effective ball throughout for the winners while his team-mates rapped the offerings of Rhodes, Murren and Miller freely.

33 ENTRIES IN INDIANAPOLIS 500-MILE RACE

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Thirty-three veteran auto racers worried more about the possibility of rain today during the 36th annual 500-mile race than about their occupational hazard, death.

Even a sprinkle could bring out the yellow caution flag that prevents a driver from improving his position and ruin the chances of cars back of the leaders.

It's a race if it goes 252½ miles. Some of the hottest drivers in the field were spotted far back for the start, due to mechanical troubles that kept them from qualifying on the first day of the time trials.

They had about four hours to advance in the race and figured they'd need all of it with Jack McGrath starting first.

$150 A Lap

McGrath had made no secret of his intention to stay in front all the way if possible. One good reason was that the Speedway pays $150 extra to a driver for each lap he leads, a tidy $30,000 for leading all the way.

The purse, about $250,000, was calculated to make the drivers forget that they were outnumbered in Speedway records by the names of 44 persons killed at the track. Most of the deaths occurred in the early days of two-man cars.

All the cars now are single seaters with much improved tires and chassis. No one has been killed in the race proper since William (Shorty) Canton hit the wall in 1947.

138-Mile Average

Today's field, dominated by the new Kurtis-Kraft cars built especially for the track, was the fastest since the first Memorial Day race in 1911. It averaged over 138 miles an hour in the time trials.

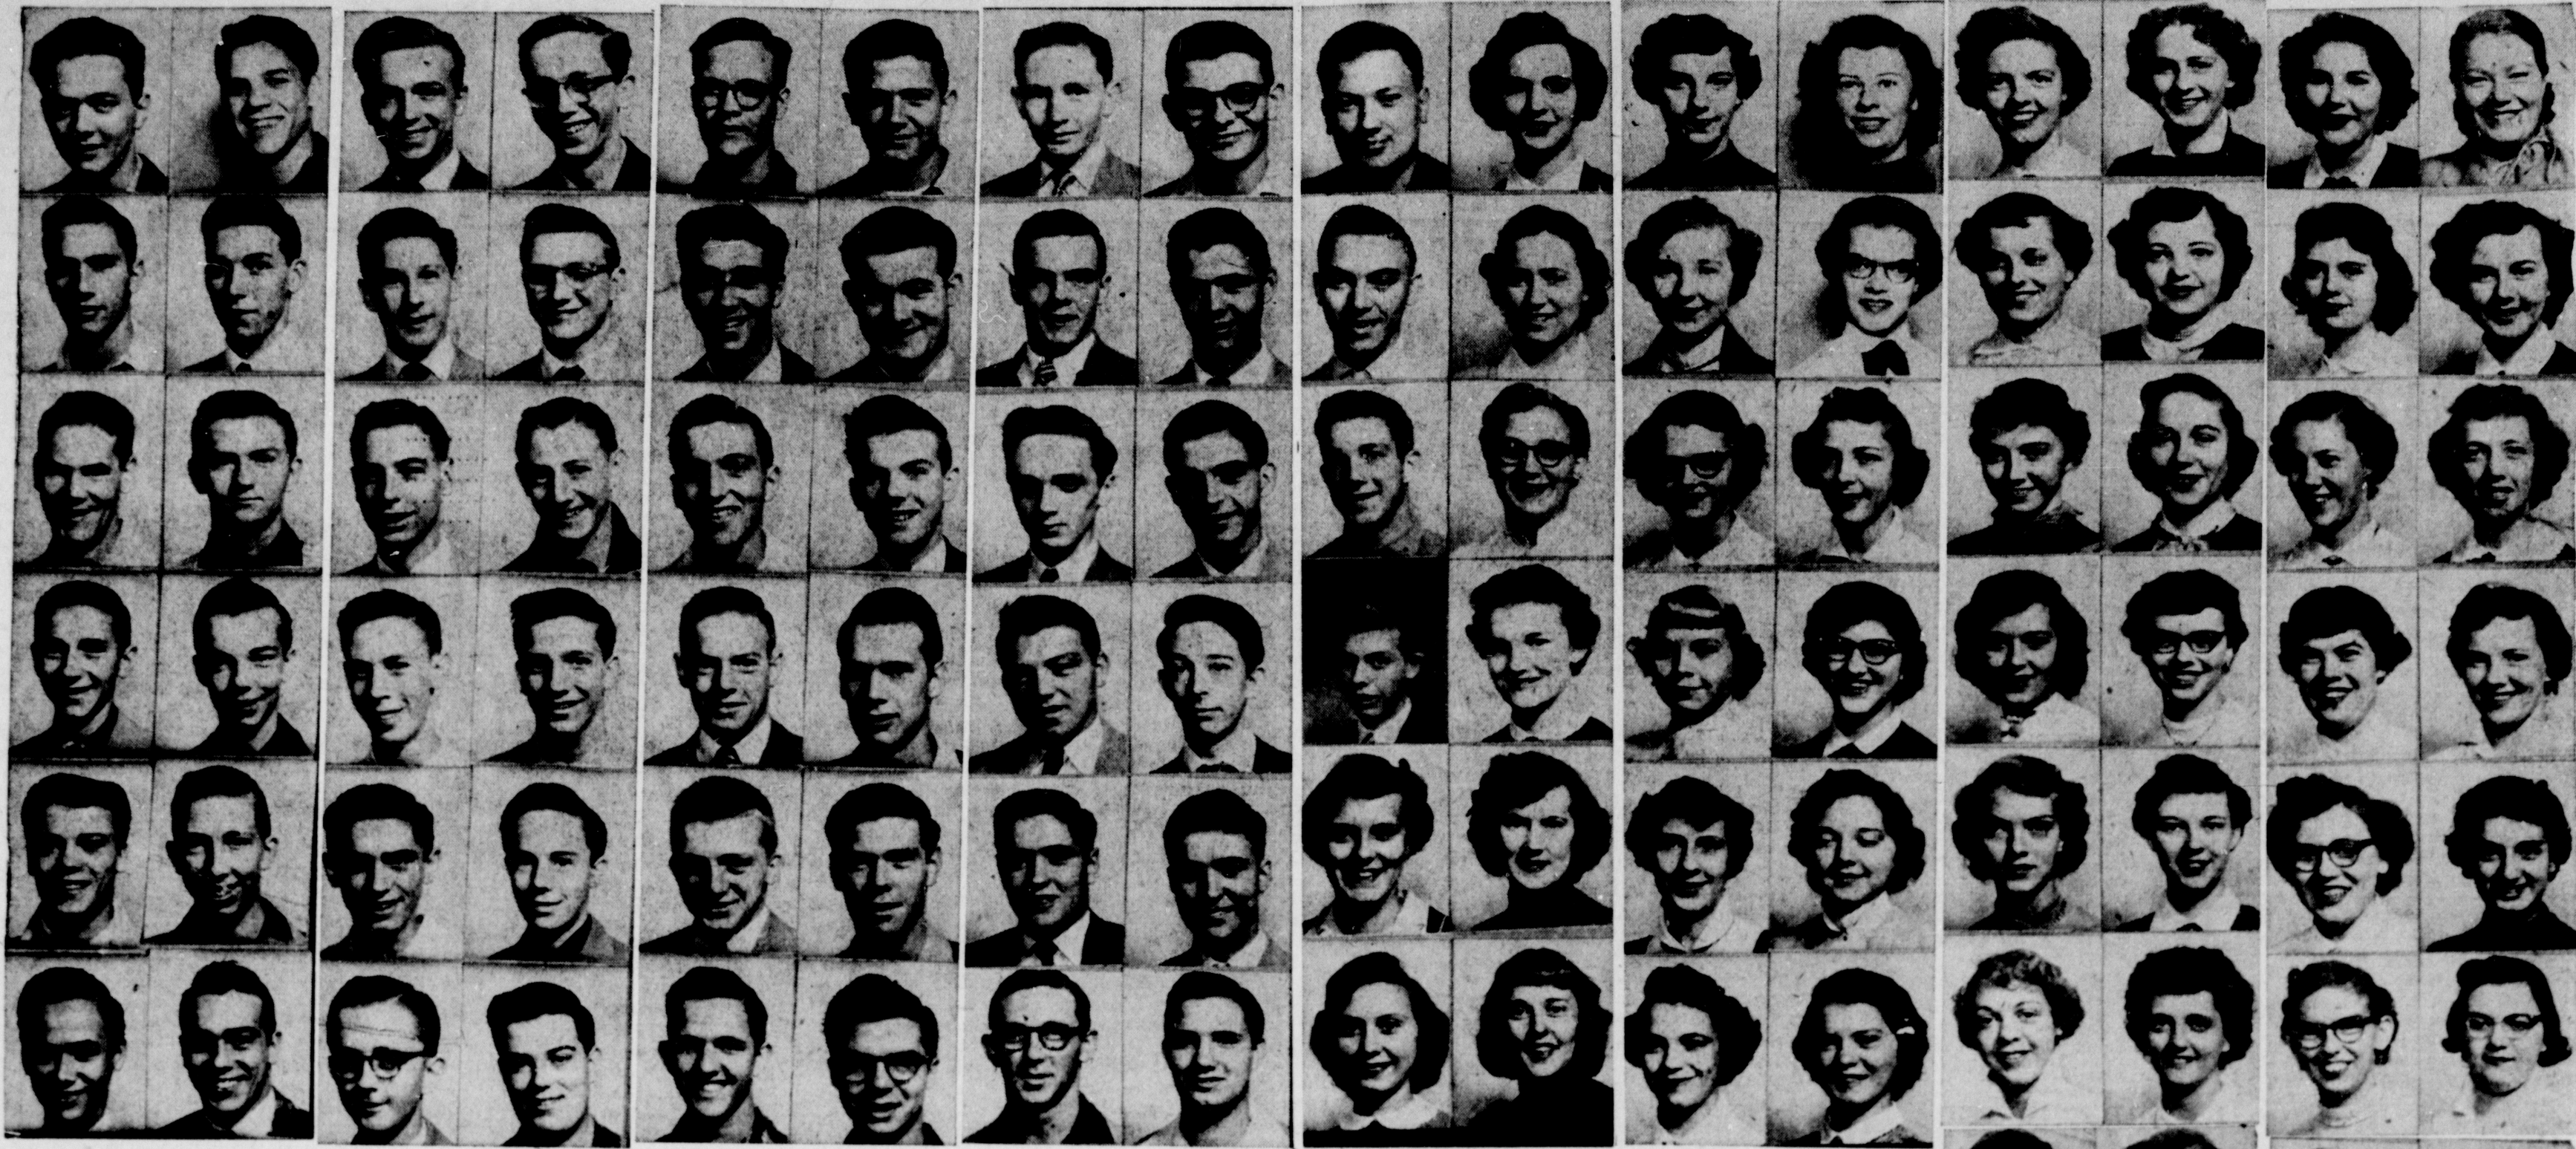

The two-year-old race record by Troy Ruttman was 128.922.

Ruttman was among the starters, along with 1953 winner Bill Vukovich and 1950 winner Jimmie Parsons. Ruttman and Jimmie Reece were the youngest at 24 but there were four starters 40 or older—Spider Webb, Len Duncan, Paul Russo and Fred Agabashian.

Duncan, although 42, was in the lineup for the first time after a long career of Eastern dirt track racing and an interval as chauffeur for former President Harry Truman.

A kiss from TV star Marie Wilson awaited the winner, along with the Borg-Warner Trophy, the Dodge pace car and a bundle of cash which probably will exceed $90,000. The Speedway's payoff, which is based on attendance, and accessory

U.S.-RED TALKS ON ATOMIC RULE HIT BY PRAVDA

MOSCOW (P) — Pravda said Saturday secret American-Soviet talks on atomic control "cannot bring any position results unless the United States agrees to unconditional prohibition of atomic-hydrogen weapons."

The Communist party newspaper in a lengthy article denounced President Eisenhower's world atomic pool plan as unworkable otherwise.

The paper accused the United States of trying to reveal the course of the confidential talks in a "one-sided and distorted light" whereas the point of view of the other (Soviet) side remains unknown or distorted.

The article was the first public presentation here of the Soviet version of the talks.

"New Proposal"

Pravda said the Soviet Union "put forward a new proposal"

Three Lehigh plants struck May 11. Employees of the Dragon Cement Co. walked out May 19 and yesterday 370 employees of the Universal Atlas Cement Co. of Northampton struck that plant.

In rejecting the Lehigh Portland offer Friday, Victor Thomas, Dist. 1 representative, said wage rates in the Midwest and other areas were five to eight cents higher than in the East even before a recent five cent hourly increase.

The company also offered double time and a half for holiday work.

Thomas said the average wage in the East is $1.45 whereas the Midwest was getting $1.53 and the West $1.68 under the old contract.

Dist. 1 embraces the Lehigh Valley of Pennsylvania and parts of Maryland and New Jersey. It has some 10,000 members in 25 plants.

There are 17 plants in the Lehigh Valley employing 6,000 union members.

which it said consisted of a "solemn, unconditional obligation not to use atomic, hydrogen or other weapons of mass destruction."

The United States made clear last December the Eisenhower atomic pool plan, introduced at a special meeting of the United Nations General Assembly at that time, was intended to circumvent Soviet insistence on the ban.

The plan envisaged contributions by many nations to an international pool of fissionable materials for peaceful research.

Since then Secretary of State Dulles has held private talks on the plan with Soviet Ambassador Georgi Zarubin in Washington and with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in Geneva.

Pravda declared these negotiations "caused legitimate doubts about the sincerity and initiative displayed by the Americans."

COMMITTEE CHANGES TAX REVISION BILL

WASHINGTON (P) — The Senate Finance Committee has knocked out of the omnibus tax revision bill a House provision aimed at cities and states which build plants to try to attract industries from other communities.

The committee, completing its fourth week of closed-door work on the 875-page measure, on Friday also broadened greatly the percentage depletion tax benefit for a big group of strategic minerals.

Under present law, tax-exempt development bonds may be issued by states and cities to build industrial plants for lease to private companies.

The House adopted a provision which denied to companies using such plants the right to deduct their rental payments from their taxes as a business expense. It was this provision which the Senate committee deleted.

The question of boosting the percentage depletion allowance on strategic minerals was raised by Sen. Malone (R-Nev.).

Not In Short Supply

The committee did not increase the percentage depletion allowance on copper, lead, zinc and molybdenum, which were on Malone's list. Staff aides said that the group thought these were not in short supply.

However, the committee voted to raise the allowance on these minerals to 23 per cent, for an estimated annual 4½ million dollars of revenue loss.

Antimony, asbestos, bauxite, beryllium, bismuth, cadmium, celestite, cobalt, columbium and tantalum, corundum, fluor spar, graphite, kyanite, manganese ore, mercury, mica, nickel, platinum and platinum-group metals, quartz crystal (radio grade), tin, tungsten, vanadium, thorium, block steatite talc, ilmenite and rutile, zircon and chromite.

Under the House bill, all of these would be allowed 15 per cent except asbestos, which would be given 10.

4 PERISH IN TORNADO

BAGNELL, Mo. (P) — A tornado upset an excursion boat on the Lake of the Ozarks on Friday. At least four persons and probably six were drowned.

The planes reportedly were in six passengers and the pilot were rescued. Two of the passengers said the pilot saved their lives. Owners of the capsized craft said it was routine to send another boat to check on its excursions when a storm blew up, and that precaution put a rescue boat alongside the stricken craft quickly.

VAN FLEET ENROUTE HOME

TAIPEH, Formosa (P) — Gen. James A. Van Fleet cut short a military survey tour of the Far East Saturday and left unexpectedly for Washington, reportedly on orders from President Eisenhower.

It was rumored here Van Fleet would brief Eisenhower and other U. S. officials on the Far East situation before high level military talks involving the United States, Britain, France, New Zealand and Australia open June 3.

Canine Dog-Napper Defends His Friend

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (P) — Mabel Whittitt's hat shop was spic and span and ready for the first customer. When the door was opened a big Dalmatian dog slipped inside, snatched a stuffed poodle from the show window and then made his getaway.

Startled clerks followed him for a block but quit the chase when the Dalmatian had placed the poodle gently beside a tree and turned to defend his fuzzy friend against any attackers.

CEMENT UNION REJECTS BOOST

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (P) — An AFL Cement Workers Union spokesman announced Friday night rejection of a five-cent-an-hour wage hike offered by the Lehigh Portland Cement Co.

After a long six-hour session with federal mediators, the contract negotiations recessed for the holiday weekend with this picture prevailing in the industry:

1. Some 1,400 cement workers are on strike in five plants, three of them Lehigh Portland's, in the Lehigh Valley.

2. All of the strikers are members of Dist. 1 of the AFL United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers Union. They have been work-

Rooms Six

Cubage 25,000 ft.
Dimensions 66' x 33'

Measurements of the main house is 46' x 25'; complete with attached garage the measurements are 66' x 33'. Cubage of the house is 25,000 feet; cubage of the garage is 5400 feet. At least a 90 foot lot would be required to hold both house and the attached garage. And, whether you have "The Lawson" constructed in easy, budget-saving stages or all at one time, be sure to have a lot large enough to hold the completed house.

To give "The Lawson" an extra touch of exterior appeal use a combination finish. Shingles and fieldstone are combined very effectively to give an unusually attractive exterior to the house in the illustration. The fieldstone chimney will further dress up the exterior of this house as does the multi-colored asphalt roofing.

The roof overhang shelters the side porch and protects the entrance. Just large enough to shield the living room from drafts caused by opening the front door during the colder weather and also to keep some of the street dirt and dust from being tracked directly into the living room, the entry hall has a large coat closet in its right wall.

Picture Window
To the left of this hall is the den; to the right is the 20' x 13' 4" living room. In the front wall there is a large picture window flanked by casement windows. Centered in the back wall is the fireplace. Attractively arranging large furniture pieces presents no problem whatever in this room, for there is a long expanse of unbroken right wall and left wall.

In the right living room wall there is another window that admits still further light and ventilation into this spacious and attractive room. Two doors in the back wall open on the hallway connecting with the other rooms in "The Lawson." Directly in back of the living room is the 11' 6" x 10' dining room.

For light, ventilation and decorative appeal there is a picture window in the back dining wall. Cabinets built into both back corners provide you with plenty of storage space for your china and glassware. And, located as they are at either side of the picture window and casement windows, these built-in cabinets help to make the back dining room wall even more attractive.

Working counters, cupboards and cabinets line the back and right kitchen walls in an L shaped array. The sink is centered under the double windows in the back wall the stove is placed at the right end of the line of working counters. Just a few steps away from the stove, against the front wall is the selected location for the refrigerator.

In the left wall of the kitchen, the door opens on a hallway leading to the back stoop, the 20' x 19' garage and the lavatory.

Two windows in the front wall and two more in the back wall provide plenty of good light and comfortable ventilation in the garage. You'll find this garage has an abundance of overhead and regular storage space.

Good Ventilation

Measuring 12' x 10', the den or bedroom is reached from the kitchen as well as from the entry hall. Two windows provide good light and ventilation for this room. And whatever the purpose to which you decide to put this room, you'll have no trouble finding a storage use for the large closet in the back wall.

Larger of the bedrooms is the front one which is 14' x 12' in dimensions. Two windows in the front wall and one in the right provide cross ventilation. The two closets should completely solve the problem of who's to hang what, where in this master bedroom.

The back bedroom also reaps the benefit of good light and cross ventilation from the one window in the back wall and the other in the right wall. This bedroom also has ample storage area in the form of a large closet living room. In the front wall in the right wall.

Located between the dining room and the back bedroom and also opening on the central hallway, the bathroom can be outfitted with both a tub and a shower. One window provides the room with ample light and ventilation.

Complete plans and specifications for this house and all other "Home of the Week" designs are available at moderate cost.

For plan prices, write to the Home Building Editor Dept. 18, The Gettysburg Times, and enclose a self-addressed, 3c stamped envelope. Allow 7 to 10 days for a reply.

Kirk Douglas Weds French Brunette

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (U-P) — Actor Kirk Douglas and the attractive Paris brunette who handled publicity for one of his European movies are honeymooning today after an elopement that caught Hollywood by surprise.

Douglas, 37, married Anne Buydens, 31, at the Hotel Sahara Saturday after flying here from the movie capital. They return tomorrow so the rugged actor can resume work in a picture.

The two met in Italy last year when he was acting in a movie and she was doing publicity work for the film. Each had been wed once previously.

FOUNDATIONS WERE STARTED BEFORE CHRIST

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (U-P) — The present investigation of tax-exempt foundations is only the third of its kind in American history, but investigations of foundations were made before Christ and foundations themselves existed long before that.

A Senate committee investigated in 1912. So did a special House committee, headed by the late Rep. Eugene Cox (D-Ga.), in 1952. Under the chairmanship of Rep. B. Carroll Reece (R-Tenn.) a special House committee is making an investigation now. Reece says the purpose is to see whether the foundations are carrying out their stated purposes or whether there is use of their money to promote communism or socialism.

Purposes Have Varied
Foundations and their purposes have varied. They get their money through rich men or their heirs or through contributions, and hand it out for special projects: humanitarian, social, civil, religious, medical, scientific, educational, charitable.

Ernest Victor Hollis, a specialist on the subject, traced them back to the beginning of American history, pointing out that the gifts and bequests which endowed colleges were foundations, the money being set aside for the public good.

Benjamin Franklin provided 1,000 pounds in 1790 for two foundations still in existence, in Boston and Philadelphia, for the education of "young married artificers."

In this country there are perhaps more than 30,000 foundations with total capital assets of maybe 6½ to 7 billion dollars. The largest is the Ford Foundation with assets of more than 500 million.

Perpetual Friends
Hollis, writing for the American Council of Education in 1939, said the Egyptian pharaohs, 1400 years before Christ, set up perpetual funds, as they thought, for religious and personal purposes: the money would go to a college of priests who would have to use some of the money to keep the donor's tomb perpetually protected.

The Chaldeans, according to Hollis, had almost identical practices 1200 years before Christ. "These," he said, "are the earliest known efforts at projecting private will beyond life for general purposes."

The Romans made foundations indisputably legal but by 65 B.C. they had grown so powerful, and had gotten so deep in politics, that Cicero, who thought they were working against him, got the Senate to dissolve them.

The foundations have a continuing history. In the medieval period they were ecclesiastical. They owned between a third and a half of the wealth of Great Britain. Finally, Henry VIII confiscated the wealth of all the foundations in Britain for use of the crown.

In 1837 a royal commission was established to investigate foundations. The job took 17 years. The Cox investigation took six months. The Reece investigation, unless Congress approves its continuance, ends by Dec. 31.

Found In Bay
Her body—the head and face wounded in about a dozen places—was discovered half submerged in Chesapeake Bay early Saturday. Authorities attributed the death to drowning.

St. Marys County Sheriff Wilford B. Long said he thinks Strickland disposed of his trousers, Miss Conole's purse and two beach blankets somewhere between Scotland Beach and Patuxent Naval Air Station.

Both were stationed at Patuxent. A tour of this area was made yesterday, but none of the items was found.

Arrested In South
Strickland was arrested at his home in Rocky Mount, N.C., Saturday afternoon and returned to Leonardtown, Md., yesterday. His wife of one year, Wanda, made the trip back with him.

Rocky Mount Detective Lt. P.C. Zimmerman, who arrested Strickland, said the young airman gave him this version of his date with Miss Conole:

Returning home after visiting several night spots, they picked up a hitchhiker at Miss Conole's request. The three then proceeded to Hays Beach, near Point Lookout.

Later, Strickland left the two together. When he found her purse in his car he returned to the beach, only to find bloodied blankets.

HOLD SUSPECT IN MURDER OF IRENE CONOLE

LEONARDTOWN, Md. (U-P) — Authorities planned a new search today for a pair of bloodied trousers which they say a Navy airman discarded after murdering a Navy Wave.

They said their prisoner—Airman Carl Willis Strickland, 21—would accompany them on their tour of the Scotland Beach area. Strickland is due to appear in Magistrate's Court Friday on a murder charge.

The young sailor insisted that he left the Wave, Irene Marion Conole, 26, of Rochester, N.Y., alive with an unnamed hitchhiker early Saturday on the beach near Point Lookout, Md., after spending the evening with her.

Know These Garden Pests And Kill Them On Sight

Never before were so many pesticides available to the amateur gardener, and never did he need so few. This is because he can now obtain in a single dust or spray mixture, material to deal with all insects and diseases likely to attack his plants.

But pesticides do not cure; they only protect, and cannot repair damage already done. Everything depends, therefore, upon your foresight in setting up a defense against expected attacks, and upon prompt action against surprise invasions.

Experienced gardeners learn that some insects must always be expected. The list varies in different sections of the country. In the central west cucumber beetles will always attack young cucumber, melon and squash plants, and not only injure them but infect them with the virus of a wilt disease. White butterflies always appear where members of the cabbage family are grown—such as cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, kale, kohlrabi and Brussels sprouts. The butterflies lay eggs which hatch into cabbage worms that feed upon your crop. Leaf hoppers attack beans, flea beetles eat little holes in the leaves of eggplant, roses are preyed upon by aphids, rose bugs and black spot disease, iris by borers and perennial phlox by red spider.

Dust should be applied to a plant in a cloud which envelops it and covers all stems and leaves with a coat about as heavy face powder. It is not necessary for the leaves to be damp, but a good job cannot be done in a strong wind. The dust coat should be there when the insects arrive, if possible, or when the spores (seeds) of fungi are carried to the plant.

Dust after every rain, especially, to prevent disease. Splashing rain drops spread fungist spores and dampness encourages their germination.

President At Tomb Of Unknown Soldier

WASHINGTON (U-P) — President Eisenhower planned to lay a wreath at the tomb of the unknown soldier and attend Memorial Day services today in the Arlington National Cemetery Amphitheater.

Plans were made by the Army to fire a 21-gun salute for the President when he arrives at the cemetery, across the Potomac River from Washington, and when he leaves.

Later in the day, the President flies to New York City where he will speak tonight at bicentennial ceremonies of Columbia University, which he formerly headed.

The speech, to be carried nationally by radio and television networks, has been described by the White House as a major foreign policy address.

Sprinkling the leaves of plants may accomplish both, especially when the garden is sprinkled late in the day, and the leaves are damp when night falls.

The new insecticides are even less poisonous to users than the nicotine, arsenic and others which have been used for a century, and still are by many growers. But all edible parts of plants whether or not they have been sprayed or dusted with insecticide, should be washed thoroughly before using. And whenever the manufacturer advises that his material should not be used on edible parts nearing harvest, obey, and take no chances.

That Packard Look!

...the new Packard was introduced as "America's new choice in fine cars";

...and the new Packard Clipper, America's newest medium-priced car, was introduced as "Luxury at a lot less—because Packard builds it."

The two new cars made history from the standpoint of public reception, and gradually you saw more Packards on the road... heard more people say: "It's great to be back with Packard!"... and saw again the influence of Packard styling in competing makes.

So once more... sweeping down the highways of another generation is an automobile that men and women from seventeen to seventy recognize instantly as either an old friend returned or a proud newcomer bearing with dignity and poise its timeless tradition, its unmistakable character.... Join at Dave Forney & Son the ownership of a new 1954 Packard.
